I. NOTES ON THE SITUATION

More on Living Conditions: Reports on living and working conditions in North Vietnam continue

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] women have replaced men in "virtually every field of endeavor," and that women constitute the great majority of the militia and about one-half of the armed security service. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Agricultural and construction workers usually work about a seven-hour day, [REDACTED] and are subjected to short, political indoctrination sessions about once a week--a not excessive requirement in view of war needs and the Communist penchant for political indoctrination. [REDACTED] the draft age as 18 and [REDACTED] that illegal deferments are not uncommon, citing examples of the successful bribery of both medical officials and personnel cadre in charge of assignment and recruitment.

Walt - work up a statement on what they do when we pause (last paragraph) and get someone, some Senator, to make it about how they used the peace initiative.
